I am a sao fan, but this is just boring. You do the same thing over and over. And there is too much text.. NO TOYS ALLOWED. The best game ever!

Rollin' with balls and♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥

Doing more balls.

Balls.. I like the execution of the concept of the game, turning it into 3D with polygons. Simple yet overall great idea.

Suggest change on the color font of the HUD though, with the background already white. I thought the game had no UI.. This is a fun game. Nothing earth shattering, but it's well worth the price. I do wish it had more resolution options, but that's a small quibble.

You have 18 (or 16, can't remember) spell V card slots and as you progress through the story you build your deck. In combat, you get a random hand from that pool with additional cards each turn. I do like the mana system - it's not cards like a lot of card games. Your mana increase over time and can be boosted with spells (and you can reduce your opponent's). Feels nice.. Heartbreaking. Absolutely gorgeous. Scary. Hilarious. Pick it up. It's worth it.

Not much difference between this and BA1, I bought the 2nd one first. The Graphics are the Only negative function here, if you can call it that. Get past the GFX by zooming far out use Top Down view. Close Combat players will like this view:). Its cheap, for me in sale £7.99 on Bundlestars... That's why I didn't mind purchasing the first one the next day also in same sale. Can't go wrong when you purchase these titles like this. Anyways if you're a TBS player too then you'll also be used to looking past the GFX for the Gameplay which is here in abundance so... time to make your mind up. (PS- This is the Same review I did for the First Battle Academy as to me they are both the same just more content.) Just in case any of you noticed..... played for 85 minutes.. I started to get "into" it when basically you realize the controls cannot keep up with you. dualwielding is a death sentence unless you can walk faster. seems like movement gets slowed down when you are in combat. also. very few items can be grabbed or destroyed. In VR everything should be interactable. game also started to feel a little Doom like with key places always having achers. I did look around every door but ironically there was never an monster right there. always back in the corner shooting. but up to that 85 minutes I was looking forward to playing when ever I took a break. Think I'll make my own version. This game is incredibly fun and you can do so much with it, Only thing I have against it is in the new update it crashes a lot for me, Other than that 10/10 Recommend it for someone who likes cars and lego destruction.. Alien Breed comes in "3 Episodes" and if you like games like the Free2Play game Alien Swarm then you should try all three Episodes of Alien Breed. That would Be:

Alien Breed: Impact
Alien Breed: Assault
Alien Breed: Descent

Can recommend. Only flaw I found was the Co-op part of the game, its a stand alone four different missions that you can play, and not the main campaign played in Co-op (Sadly). Later games even have survival mode.. This game is awesome special when you're a fan of the Bud Spencer and Terence Hill movies when I play it I feel like back in the 80's and a fantastic soundtrack love this game is fun I love the option to play all the songs in the option under jukebox is on sale right now on steam on 4-20 for 15.99 so get it before it gets back on 19.99. my game does not start where it says that they have bugs and issues it didn't start till I have downloaded it. Please help. very nice graphic design. good game.. Becomes grindy after 3 hours
